La Demoiselle Rose, IGP Gard

History: Wine has been made at Chateau de Montfaucon since the XVIth Century. The old cellars are still used for barrel ageing. In 1420 the King of France conferred the title of Baron to Montfaucon. One of Rodolphe's ancestors had a daughter who was referred to as La Demoiselle de Montfaucon. This wine has been after her.

Location: Just across the Rhône river from the esteemed vineyards of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, this estate is owned by Baron Rodolphe de Pins.

Blend: 60% Cinsault, 20% Caunoise, 10% Carignan and 10% Grenache

Pairing Suggestions: Exceptionally versatile. I have successfully paired it with butter garlic prawns, biryani, Paella, Shammi Kebab and even sabji. Try it.

Rose: Rodolphe de Pins seeks elegance and harmony in his wines and looks towards burgundy for inspiration. This Rose is lively and joyful. Its peach, red berry and citrus notes with its flavourful mouthfeel will enchant you on every occasion. A favourite of mine.

Alcohol: 13% Serving Temperature: 8 - 10°C
